A Star on the Far Horizon

As 2021 begins, hope shines like a star on the far horizon asking us to follow into unknown territory. Distribution of the new vaccines for COVID-19 promises that this pandemic will end, but it is unclear what the world will be like when it releases its grip on our lives. A year of varying levels of isolation and quarantine has changed just about everything: work, family life, church, education, commerce, government, and the arts. We've learned just how much we can adapt when we have to--which is a joy. But there is deep grief at all that has been lost and deep fear in the knowledge that this pandemic has changed life profoundly and forever.

One thing that has not changed is that, as Christians, we begin the year with the story of those who followed a new star into an unknown future. The Magi left their home and journeyed toward a light and a promise, though they did not know for sure what or who they would find upon their arrival. And once they had found the promised child, an angel told them they could not simply retrace the route they had come and resume the lives they had known. Instead, they had to return home by another way.

I think 2021 is going to be like that for us. There is a light on the horizon; God is coming to us in hope. And we cannot simply retrace our steps to the life we had before the pandemic. We will have to go home by another way.

The scripture does not tell us what became of the Magi once they embarked upon their homeward journey, but scripture does show us waymarks to guide us as we emerge into a changed world.

For the last several years, our congregation has embraced the spiritual practice of distributing "Star Words" on the Sunday closest to The Feast of Epiphany on January 6. Just as God showed the Magi a star that would guide them to the Christ Child, we hope that receiving a Star Word as the new year begins will guide your own prayers and contemplations in the coming weeks.

If we were worshipping in our sanctuary, each person would come forward and draw a star from the basket. Since we cannot do that this Christmas, we are sending the stars to you through the mail. If you don't receive one, call the

Worship With CPC On Line: A Brief Tutorial

There are several simple ways to navigate to our online Sunday Worship services.

From our Church Website:

1. Go to claremontpres.org. The opening screen features an image that says "Worship Online" with a button to click to learn more. If you click this link it will bring up our Link Library, with the top line featuring a hyperlink to our church Facebook Page. The hyperlink looks like this:

Sunday

10:00 AM - Worship on Facebook

2. Click the word "Facebook" and it will take you to our church's Facebook page. If you do not have a Facebook account, you may see an invitation to set up an account. You can decline this and still view our Facebook page. Shortly before 10 AM on Sundays, our live video feed from the Sanctuary should be the top post.

From your web browser:

1. Open your browser (Safari, Firefox, Chrome, Internet Explorer, Microsoft Edge, etc.)
2. In the address bar, type the URL (or web address) "facebook.com/claremontpres" to navigate to Claremont Presbyterian Church's Facebook page. On Sundays, just before 10, our livestream should be the first post you see.

From Facebook:

If you are already logged on to Facebook, type Claremont Presbyterian Church in the search bar. This will bring up a link to our CPC Facebook page at the top of the list of search results. If you have not already "liked" our church page, we encourage you to do so.

To find Archived Services from previous weeks:

Go to www.claremontpres.org. At the top of the page, click the Worship and Music tab. This will bring up a drop down menu. From this menu, click "Sermons". This will take you to a page with recorded services from previous weeks.

Many of our services, music, and educational offerings are also viewable on our church YouTube page. Go to YouTube.com and enter "Claremont Presbyterian Church" in the search bar. You'll see our channel close to the top of the page.

Alternative Christmas Market a Huge Success

What a generous congregation we have here at Claremont Presbyterian Church! The annual Alternative Christmas Market was not able to be held the way it has been in previous years, with a festive event in Fellowship Hall. The ACM was done completely by mail and online. That did not dampen the enthusiasm of our wonderful members and friends. As of this writing we have raised over $11,000 for our worthy mission partners and orders are still trickling in. Thank you to all who have shared your blessings with those less fortunate!

Evening Prayer on the Lawn

Our outdoor evening services on the church lawn have provided a deeply meaningful opportunity to gather in person for worship and prayer since late June. During this darker, colder season, our Saturday Evening Prayer services will go on hiatus. We plan to begin again during Lent, which starts on February 17. See next month's Communicator for an update on plans and schedule.

Stewardship Update

As of December 15, we have received 115 pledges totaling $438,283. This is 94% of our 2021 goal of $465,000. Thank you to all who have been so generous! If you have not yet made your pledge to support Claremont Presbyterian Church and its ministries in 2021, please prayerfully consider doing so. You may call the office for a pledge card or pledge online at claremontpres.org/annual-pledge.

Memorial Service for Leanne Kerchner

There will be an online Memorial Service for Leanne Kerchner on Saturday, January 9 at 10:00 AM. Please call the church office after January 1 for details regarding platform and access.

Anti-Racism Groups Resume in January

In January we will return to weekly discussions. The resource will be the book titled, Good White Racist? by Kerry Connelly.

Connelly takes the perspective of church folks within the church. She also poses three possible action items at the end of each chapter (Learn, Think, Act). This will become the meat of our conversations as we encourage and explore how people have engaged any number of these action items.

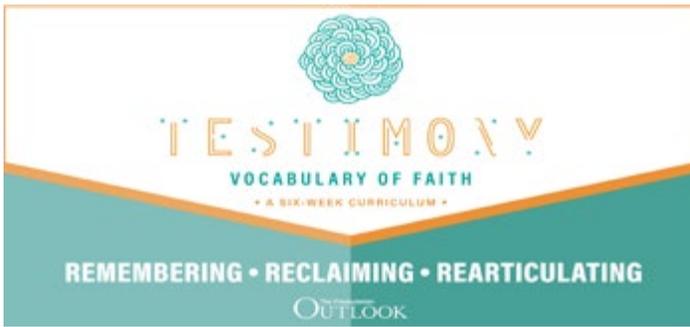

Join us Thursdays in January (7, 14, 21, 28) at 6:30 PM on Zoom. Meeting ID: 837 0146 4185, passcode: 493373.

Adopt a Family

Instead of gathering in Fellowship Hall to pick and choose nametags and gift ideas off of our tree, Adopt-a-Family was listed among the many causes CPC looks forward to supporting each year at the Alternative Christmas Market. The Deacons goal was to raise $1000.00 to purchase gift cards for five Uncommon Good families. What joyful news! Our members donated $1150.00, going above and beyond our wish. This, together with carryover Adopt-a-Family funds, we now have enough to help two more families for a total of seven. Thank you for your continued generosity of spirit as well your support for these families in great need. In addition to CPC's support, the families at the Children Center wanted to be a part of the giving, so they chose nametags off of their tree then donated to Adopt-a-Family as well. Blessings abound! Thanks go to the following Deacons who made festive gift baskets for each family: Irene Atwood, Betty Butler, Karee Galloway, Christine Kolb, Kathy Leff, Rita Watts, and Lynn Miller. Their care adds a heartfelt touch to each gift. Thank you again to all who gave to this long held CPC tradition.

Wednesday Bible Study: Testimony- The Vocabulary of Faith

Beginning January 6, our Wednesday afternoon Bible Study will embark upon a study designed by The Presbyterian Outlook and leaders of NEXT Church. The authors invite us to begin with these words: “We are excited to offer this new curriculum, which we hope frees people to live their Reformed faith by remembering, reclaiming and rearticulating what we believe about who God is and who we are so the patterns of our lives embody the liberating love and grace of Jesus Christ.”

We know that life in the post-pandemic world will mean that followers of Jesus will need to communicate the gospel clearly and in new ways. CPC offers this bible study to equip us for the task. The Zoom Meeting ID for this gathering is 862 1883 9113

Waffle Church

This month’s Waffle Church is Sunday, January 17 at 10:00 AM. Let’s sing some songs, share in a story about Jesus meeting a new friend, get instructions for a fun craft, and share with each other our favorite breakfast to have for virtual Waffle Church. Join us on Zoom: Meeting ID: 846 0261 8002.
